Mr. A. Clooney left today for Chicago to buy his stock of jewelry for his new store.

Mr. James Wallace has at his place of business in Market street a beet grown on his Hill-top farm that weighs 14 pounds and 1 ounce. Now, who can beat this beet?

100 Engraved Visiting Cards and plate $1; cards printed from your own plates. Reception Cards, 100 Engraved Wedding invitations only $9. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. James Knight, formerly of Washington, was badly hurt while housing tobacco recently on his place in Fleming county by falling from the barn railing. He is getting better now, it is understood.

The many friends of Miss Ida E. Keith will regret to learn that upon her return to Newport she found her brother, Ollie, at Speers Hospital, undergoing another operation. At this writing he is improving nicely. It will be remembered he was in the hospital all last winter.

The affairs of Mason county have been administered in such an able and admirable manner under the watchful eye of Judge C. D. Newell that it is very doubtful if he has an opponent for the place. Judge Newell has been conservative in all his actions, and always looking after and guarding the best interests of the county. He is competent, honest and fearless in the discharge of the duties of the high office. By nominating him for a re-election the Democrats would be but serving their own best interests and that of the county as well. His announcement appears in another column of THE LEDGER.

HON. VIRGIL McKNIGHT.

CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

While everybody will be wondering what the Woggle Bug will say on the 26th day of November, it will be well for the Democrats, in making a choice for Representative, to bear in mind that the Hon. Virgil McKnight will be in the running for re-election; and THE LEDGER will predict that on the morning after he will be caused to exclaim in the language of Caesar, "Veni, Vidi, Vici"—I came, I saw, I conquered. Everybody knows the "King," as he is familiarly called, and we take pleasure in announcing his candidacy to the Democrats of Mason county, as a man, modest and unassuming in his manners, unselfish, always displaying a sacrificial spirit, ever ready to sacrifice his own interest for the benefit of his friends, and is truly a servant of the people. He is a gentleman and a scholar and we might add a statesman. As a gentleman, he is all that the word implies. As a scholar, he is diligent in pursuing the principles and methods of Constitutional Government; having graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and Central University of Kentucky, two of the most noted institutions of their kind in the country; admitted to the Bar in 1878, formed a partnership with Colonel Bob Franklin and Charles J. Bronston, and practiced his profession, seven years in St. Paul and four years in Texas, and consequently has attained no little degree of excellence that is no necessary in dealing with the great problems of the day and thereby making himself peculiarly adapted to the office he seeks.

Mr. McKnight is a native and belonging to one of the most influential families of Mason county, and has been identified with the Democracy of this county for a number of years, taking an active part in his own precinct in the interest of his party, when in 1903, he launched his own boat into the political sea and by his conspicuous ability and energy, surpassed the most sanguine expectations by defeating one of the most popular men in the councils of his own party for the nomination and scoring a large majority over his Republican opponent at the regular November election of that year; and in assuming the duties of his office he at once, with his peculiar clear, earnest and forcible style, commanded the confidence and admiration of his fellow-members and was by them recognized and regarded as one of the ablest members of the recent Legislature.

He is a man of pronounced political views and a dispenser of a hospitality so generous and free that is noticeable even in a country noted for its hospitality; and the man with such qualifications and sterling worth as Mr. McKnight, and under the conditions and circumstances as above related, certainly deserve a unanimous endorsement at the hands of his party.

CAULIFLOWER. EGG PLANT. CELERY. GRAPES. SWEET ROCKYFORD CANTALOUPE. FREESTONE PEACHES. GENUINE APPLE VINEGAR. WHITE-HEATH CLINGS For Pickling. Send your orders to TELEPHONE NO. 43. G. W. GEISEL, OPPOSITE OPERA-HOUSE.

Mr. James Heflin, who is now traveling for Cincinnati firms, spent several days in the city visiting his mother. He left for a trip in the East, having had a most successful tour in the Northwest.

Yesterday Policeman Senteney celebrated his 19th wedding anniversary by setting up two for a nick cigars to the boys. Tom is a good officer and a clever fellow, and THE LEDGER's wish is that he and his good wife may live to round out a century in wedded bliss.

Owing to the extra heavy travel to the World's Fair, the C. and O. Railway has rearranged its time card, the changes to be effective Sunday, September 25th.

Beware of Quackery For Catarrh That Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. A FEATURE.

A feature of Lyman H. Howe's Moving Pictures, which will be at the Washington tonight, is that every picture is vivid with life and authentic. If you have never seen moving pictures that thoroughly pleased you, go and see Mr. Howe's masterful production; if you have seen what you considered pleasing, go anyway and see those that are infinitely better—perfect and steady, regardless of where or when you saw others; for the Lyman H. Howe moving pictures are today, as ever, the only edition de luxe of moving pictures in America. Secure tickets at Ray's.

THE Tariff is the price we charge the foreign manufacturer for selling his foreign-made goods in our market. The Democrats want to lower that price. Why should not the foreigner pay for entering our markets?

A GANG of 500 striking Union molders at Newport emphasized the justice of their cause by brutally beating 5 non-Union men who had asserted their right to work for an honest living for themselves and families.

THE Freetrade theory had its origin in a state of society where the producer was looked down upon as not worth considering. It was founded on class distinction, where some were born to rule and others to toil—where the end aimed at was cheap goods to the rulers and lowest wages to the toilers. It won't do for Americans.

WHAT'S up now! The new registration books for the city of Lexington, made necessary under the Registration Law passed by the last Legislature, requiring each voter to have a certificate of registration before he may be allowed to vote, have been received by the County Clerk of Fayette. The registration books themselves are twenty in number as usual, one for each city precinct. But only 3,000 certificates of registration have been sent, and this is about half the usual number of registered voters. What new "scheme" is this; or is it only the old one in a new form to deprive Republicans of their votes?

POINTING to the lamentable failure of Prohibition and Evangelistic methods to eradicate the saloon industry and drink habit, THE LEDGER a few days ago truthfully remarked that there were more saloons now than when the wind-jammers opened their campaign oodles of years ago. Whereupon, a sensitive if not a sensible admirer mailed to THE LEDGER a "Prohibition Map" of Kentucky, showing only 5 counties in the state where "the whisky traffic is licensed," these being printed in heavy black, and characterized as "black spots," the "storm centers of crime and pauperism." The remaining 114 counties are displayed in white, and, according to the text on the map, "show where local option is in force." Assuming that this exhibit would literally "knock the stuff" out of The Ledger Man, the unknown and unknowable sender scrawled this on the margin of the map: "You old snoozer look at this and see if there is as many saloons as there always was." Barring his murderous assault on the King's English, it looks as if this Apostle of Good had joined the multitude of the misinformed, and was attempting to deceive people who were beyond reach of the facts. Among the counties "where local option is in force,"—and, inferentially, where the whisky traffic is not permitted,—is Mason; and yet there are 15 retail saloons within shotgun range of The Ledger office, and at least 6 other places where "solace" may be had by the quart, to say nothing of divers other boozoriums about the city. Other counties represented as "local option" strongholds are Bracken, Lewis, Boyd, Fayette and Franklin; and if there's any difficulty in getting all the whisky one wants in either of them, all the saloonists have to do is to send an order to either of the three big distilleries in Maysville, in the "local option" county of Mason, and it will be forthcoming, even to thousands of barrels! Come again some more, good friend, with your deceptive literature and your extreme politeness.

Kentucky Militia Disturbers Instead of Preservers of Peace

Owing to the disturbance created in Lexington Tuesday by the members of the Danville and Maysville Companies of the Second Regiment, Kentucky State Guards, who stopped over en route home from the World's Fair, Colonel Roger D. Williams, commanding officer of the Regiment, has written a letter to Captain Vernon Richardson of the Danville Company and Captain J. Allen Dodson of the Maysville Company, asking for a letter of explanation.

Before the Regiment left for the encampment at St. Louis, Colonel Williams issued an order to the various Captains that no gambling or drinking was to be done on the trip, and that the Captains would be held personally responsible for the violations of this rule by any of their men.

The little son of Mrs. Charles W. Forman had a narrow escape from serious injury, if not worse, at his mother's place near this city Wednesday, when a heavy break wagon ran over his face and neck. It was feared he was badly injured, but from some unaccountable cause escaped with slight bruises.

Today the boys will try it again and the game promises to be a good one. Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period.

"To Young Women:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds. If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that was the only medicine which helped me any. Within three weeks after I started to take it, I noticed a marked improvement in my general health, and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since. I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 12 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."—Miss AGNES MILLER, 25 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuine cannot be produced.

The monthly sickness reflects the condition of a woman's health. Anything unusual at that time should have prompt and proper attention.
